Exciting Changes Underway at Manassas Mall!

Manassas, VA – There are big changes coming to Manassas Mall, with multiple retail locations opening, renovating, and expanding over the next month. Construction teams are currently hard at work in seven different locations, with eyes on October and November openings.

Hot Topic recently reopened in its new space near the food court, and their old neighbor Payless will be reopening close to Billy Beez around October 15th. These two moves make way for H&M's massive four thousand square foot expansion, which will bring the store all the way into the Macy's court.

Bath & Body Works is also relocating, and with that relocation they are adding an entirely new White Barn section to their store. Forever 21 Red construction is well underway, and they are slated for an early November opening. This will be the first Forever 21 location in Prince William County.
